MENTORING IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER RIGHT NOW

During the global pandemic, our services have proven to be more essential than ever. The unique relationships between our Bigs and Littles has kept children positively engaged during a period of unprecedented isolation. We are proud to have continued to serve hundreds of children and families throughout Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard during the entirety of the pandemic, with no break in service continuity. We immediately pivoted our services toward digital/virtual support, and connected with every single family. We have been there for kids and families throughout this crisis with the mentality of "we never close." And we will continue to stand with children and families into the foreseeable future, providing them with critical support that is more important now than ever.
